

The Academy of Baroque and Academic Equitation

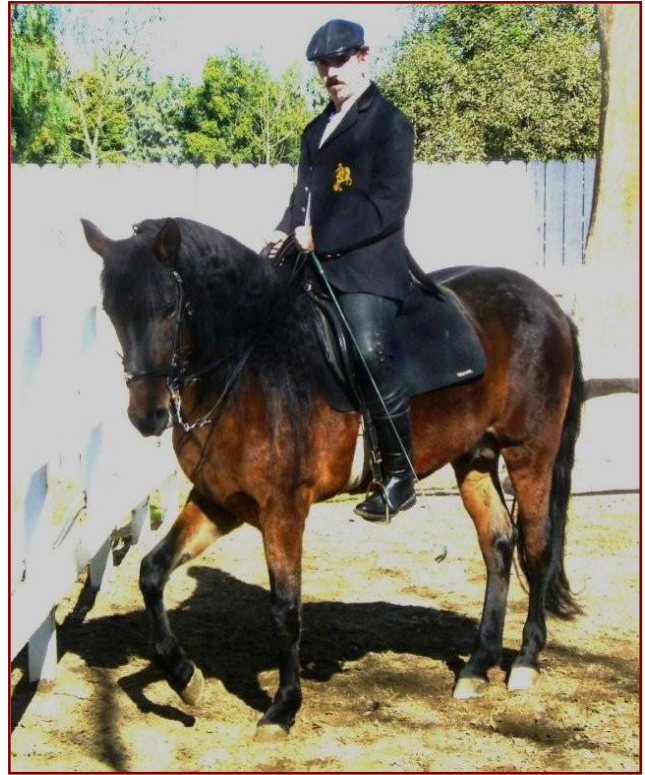

For the Sake Of the Horse

“FROM THE FIRST STEP UNDER SADDLE”

Series #2

In this continuing live lecture- demonstration series, William Sanders will examine

- The use of the Jaw flexion under saddle,
- The direct flexion and lateral flexions
- The riders’ position, the REAL use of the back
- The concept of taking the mouth of the horse in the riders back and why the back and seat bones can control the horse.
- The only way to back the horse where it is beneficial
- The Positioning of the horse as paramount to movement
- The correct use of the hands and much more of the Baucherist and Baroque principles. On MAY 22, 2010 at 11:00 A.M.

William Sanders and “Legolas” performing Travers

William Sanders was a long time student of the late French Master Jean Claude Racinet and an eleven-year student of Master Luis Valenca of Portugal

Note: The pictures are of a large Paso Fino Stallion, at 15.3hh is almost unheard of except in legends, can perform ALL of the Paso Fino gaits, fino, corto and largo. (The gaits are improved not damaged) If you want to learn how to take your gaited horses to new Heights, don't miss the series!

These principles apply to ALL horses of all disciplines to attain lightness, balance, impulsion, soundness and strength.

The educational lecture-demo series are a wonderful opportunity to learn the principles of the great Masters. William Sanders’ presentations are interesting and enjoyable as he takes you back to a time when training and riding was a highly esteemed art. You’ll have a chance to ask questions, observe closely and take notes. The session will last approximately one and a half hours.

Gaited horse enthusiasts are once again invited, as “Legolas” will be featured in the demonstrations.

Cost per session is $30. Prepayment or a $15 non-refundable deposit is required prior to the session to give you a spot.

EARLY RESERVATIONS ARE RECOMMENDED

For further information call 951.738.1433

Send payment to:

William Sanders at 2655 Sierra Ave., Norco, California, 92860